THEATRICAL OFFERINGS MOROSCO PLAY AT LIBERTY THEATER

"Help Wanted," an intimate story of the home, adapted from the stage success by Oliver Morosco and filmed by Hobart Bosworth, will be the offering at the Liberty theater for the closing days of the present week. Lois Meredith is featured in this offering and is surrounded with a typical Bosworth cast, including Hobart Bosworth himself, Owen Moore, husband of Mary Pickford, Lillian Elliott, Adele Farrington, Helen Wolcott and Carl von Schiller. The Misses Meredith and Elliott are seen in the same part in the photo-play which they originated on the speaking stage.

BRET HARTE STORY IS FILMED

Beatriz Michelena returns to Honolulu after a lengthy absence tonight in "The Lily of Poverty Flat," a photo-play founded on Bret Harte's intimate story of the same name. The Lily comes to the Hawaii theater for an engagement of one week.

HARP AND VOICE BLEND TONIGHT

At the Charles R. Bishop Hall, Punahou, this evening at 8:30, Phoebe Arleigh will endeavor to give Honolulu's music lovers a treat—an evening of harp music. The harp is ever becoming more popular as a solo instrument, especially for the voice. The program for this evening, with Mrs. Bruce McV. Mackall, assisting, appears interesting. The first two numbers, by W. Loukin, harpist of the Philharmonic at Moscow, are typically Russian in character. The "Frieze Prélude et Danse" by Marcel Tourneur is modern French and a very fascinating composition. "Am Springbrunnen" is by a Russian composer, Albert Zabel, and is descriptive of what its name implies, the fountain. The "Mazurka" by Edmund Schuecker is a favorite of performer and listener alike, for its gaiety is contagious and leaves one in a good humor. So much for the harp solos.

TANGLE ENDS IN THREE WEDDINGS

The big Cohan-Harris farce, "Stop Thief," is attracting attention at the Liberty theater this week. The play is Carlyle Moore's best, and in film form is a kaleidoscope of perpetual action through the entire five reels, having a continuous change of comedy situations.

CARNIVAL DIRECTORS TO LISTEN TO REPORT

A meeting of the Mid-Pacific Carnival directors was called for 3 o'clock this afternoon in the office of the corporation. Judge Henry E. Cooper, the director general, was to report the results of his trip to the coast and his inspection of the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. It was expected that a tentative program for carnival week, plans for the proposed Carnival City, and finances would be other subjects to be taken up.

In its efforts to increase the volume of commerce between the United States and Latin America, the Department of Commerce announced that it had undertaken to remove the barriers of trade in these countries.

Which Your Eyes Need Care Try Marine Eye Remedy

A production of the California Motion Picture Corporation, the scenes of the "Lily" are almost all laid in California where Bret Harte had already laid his scenes and where he would have chosen to have had the picture produced. It tells a story of making life in the early days.

TEAL COMPANY IS PUTTING ON NEW BILL TONIGHT

Fritz Fields, the producing director with the Raymond Teal song show at the Bijou, has chosen wisely in musical pieces until the public is now aware that any offering he produces will be out of the ordinary and well worth seeing. He is said never to have made a better choice than in "The Girl and the Drummer," which will be the attraction at the Bijou for the latter part of the week starting tonight.

"The Girl and the Drummer," in theatrical parlance, and others, is a winner. That means it is a great big hit, that it has struck the popular fancy all along the line, that it has won favor in exceptional degree. "The Girl and the Drummer" is an American musical comedy. With it here are Fritz Fields as the drummer, Madeline Rowe, Hazel Lake, Raymond Teal, Corinne Carkeek, Mildred Manning, Homer Long, LeRoy Kinslow and others who helped to make it a success on the other side of the Pacific.

"The Girl and the Drummer" is musical and fun and spectacle and dancing. There are beautiful song numbers. Madeline Rowe sings "The House Upon the Hill" and "There's a Little Spark of Love Still Burning." Hazel Lake sings "I'm a Long, Long Way from Home" and with the chorus sings "Alabama Jubilee." She and LeRoy Kinslow present their travesty on the moving picture show, "Poor Pauline." Homer Long and the beauty chorus will sing "I'm a Great Big Brother to All Nations" and "Bird of Paradise." Mildred Manning and LeRoy Kinslow have other clever numbers.

A moving picture will precede the regular show. Picture at 7:30 and the musical show at 8:15 sharp. The show will continue for the rest of this week.

KAMEHAMEHA TEACHER IS BOOSTING HAWAII

Beauty and charm of Hawaiian scenery are being vaunted at Monmouth, Illinois, by two former residents of that place, Misses Lizzie Gossett and Ida Glenn, who are sending back letters and postcards to the home town.

According to the Monmouth Atlas the two young ladies "sailed on the Ventura, and had such a pleasant voyage that they regretted to land. When they landed, however, the beauty of the country made them forget the enjoyment of the boat, and they congratulated themselves upon their arrival." The paper states that Miss Glenn will teach during the year at the Kamehameha school.

LIFE PRISONER TELLS HIS HISTORY IN BOOK

Copies of a volume written in Japanese and telling of the life imprisonment of S. Mituyasu, a convict in the territorial jail, were received by Japanese merchants here yesterday. The book is written vividly, telling of the crime which caused his incarceration in the prison. Mituyasu having killed a man at Lihue, Kauai, on May 31, 1910.

He was 24 when he was sent to prison on a life sentence, and he is 29 now. He writes calmly what he thinks of spending the rest of his life in prison and what he does with his time now.

Quite a portion of the book is taken up by an account of his crimes in the past and how they were committed.

Dr. Richard V. Mattison of Bushy Park Villa, at Newport, has offered a reward of $4,000 for the return of $50,000 of jewelry stolen from his home when the family was at dinner.
